

Sinclair Broadcasting's airing of the anti-Kerry documentary on all of its stations days before the election exemplifies the dangers of media consolidation.

Public airwaves are free of charge, and must by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves they are ethically and morally responsible to present as many perspectives on issues as possible

We need to ensure media ownership is representative of our diverse and free country.
Thank you.